

Your Support is Needed!

Are you interested in:

- Local or Family History?
- The history of your house?
- Finding out more about Somerset's past?

The Friends of Somerset Archives offer a warm welcome to all:

Individuals

Family members or associate members whether they are academics who are carrying out formal research.

Those who are interested in the history of their village or houses

Those who want to trace their local or family history or

Those who want to find out more about the county's past.

The Friends of Somerset Archives exists to:

- Promote and support the conservation and preservation of Somerset's historical records.
- Raise the profile of the use of archives and historical records and their importance in education and research.
- Celebrate the richness of Somerset's documentary heritage

As a member of the Friends you will be able to:

- Attend regular talks on a variety of historical subjects
- Take part in archive projects.
- Visit local historical sites
- Help at exhibitions and events
- Enjoy our six monthly newsletter called Somerset Snippets which provides news about archives in Somerset, details of forthcoming events, additional acquisitions and gives members the opportunity to air views and report experiences.
- Help to raise funds to buy equipment or documents.
